MAMI TAUGHT ME HOW TO EAT PUPUSAS.

SHE WOULD SLICE THEM OPEN WITH HER NAILS,

AND LET THEM COOL

BEFORE PASSING

THE PLATE TO ME.

I urge you to recreate a food memory in whatever medium feels best: writing, photography, collage, etc.

Start by thinking of a favourite food or comfort meal.

What's the memory that comes to you?

Was it the first time with this meal or a special occasion?

Where were you and who else was present?

Recall the feeling whether joyous or not.
